The Pacific is spacious, flexible, and thoughtfully designed for everyday comfort. As the largest home at Hill Street Terraces, it features an expansive great room, oversized pantry, and a bright upstairs retreat.

All square footage is approximate. Renderings are artist's conceptions and may vary slightly from the actual home. Homes may be built in reverse of plans shown, depending on site conditions. Minor architectural changes may be made occasionally at the option of the builder. Please contact your Sales Consultant for details.
